WHAT IS AIR CHINA?

Air China, established in 1988, is the only flag carrier in China and the official partner of the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games, as well as the official partner of the 2022 Olympic Winter Games and Paralympic Winter Games. Air China has been listed on the Hong Kong, London, and Shanghai Stock Exchanges.

By the end of August 2024, Air China (including subsidiaries) owns a total of 921 aircraft and an abundant and well-balanced route network. Through its membership in the Star Alliance, Air China's route network can reach over 1,150 destinations in more than 180 countries (regions) around the world.

With the vision of becoming "a leading carrier in the world", Air China adheres to the mission of "keeping safety first, providing considerate, satisfactory, comfortable and heart-moving services, pursuing steady growth, facilitating employee development, and fulfilling responsibilities", and upholds the brand positioning of becoming "a professional, trusted, internationally respected Chinese brand closely associated with China", becoming the preferred airline for numerous business clients. According to the assessment of the World Brand Lab, Air China boasted a brand value of RMB 259.695 billion in 2024, ranking among the "Top 500 World Brands" for several consecutive years.
