

ZAXBYS

In 1990, in Statesboro, Ga., Zaxbys founders Zach McLeroy and Tony Townley decided to roll the dice on a new kind of restaurant. Chicken fingers… as a main course. It was bold. It was original. And it was the beginning of something that would change countless lives over the next three decades. In fact, Zaxbys has grown to include over 950 locations in 17 states and is now headquartered in Atlanta.
